

ITALIA 2010 !!!

MONTEPULCIANO, ITALY
Study Abroad

On the bus to Montepulciano!

We fly into Rome's Leonardo da Vinci Airport (Florence for session I) and travel by chartered bus to Montepulciano, our home for five weeks.

Serbia and Montenegro have asserted the formation of a light independent state.

Montepulciano from the West: Val d'Orcia

Montepulciano from the East: Val d'Chiana

Historic Center: Aerial View

Piazza Grande: Cathedral and Well

Piazza Grande: Poliziiani in Historic Costume

Piazza Grande: Palazzo Comunale

Antonio da San Gallo's Tempio di San Biagio

Pulcinella: Via del Corso

Via del Corso

“Home Base”: Cooperativa il Sasso

IL SASSO

Scuola d'Italiano

Silvia and Heike: il Sasso staff

La Fortezza: Our Classrooms

Via San Donato

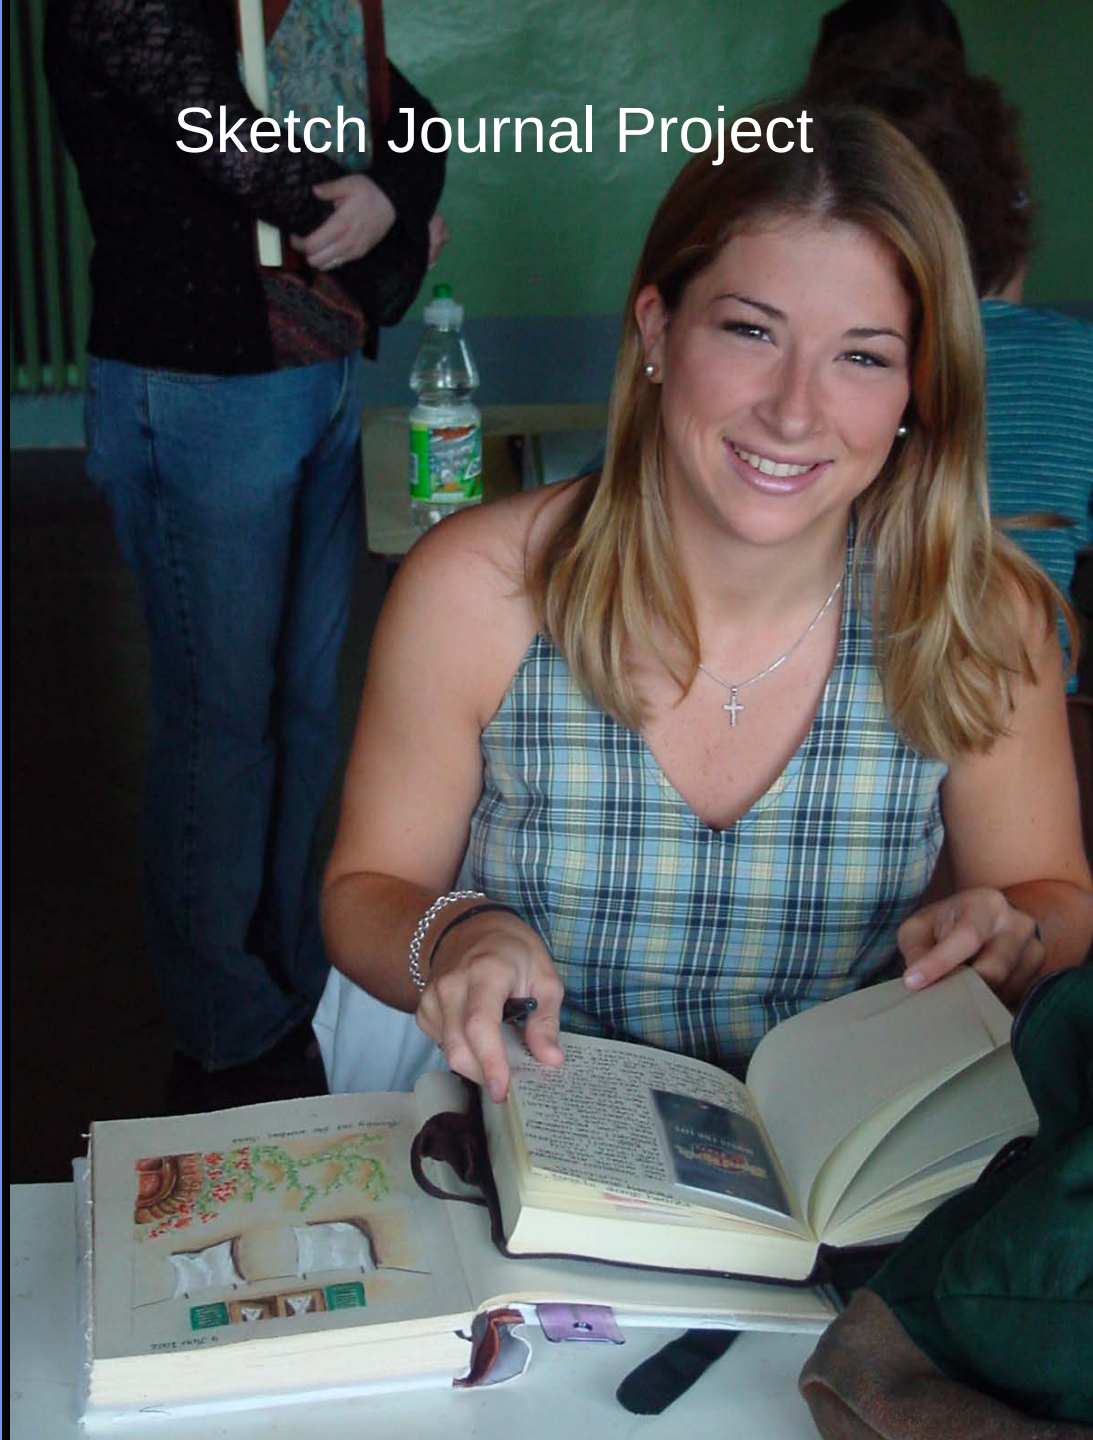

Class in the Fortress Courtyard

Typical Classroom in the Fortezza

Sketch Journal Project

Palazzo
Salimbeni

Small Classes, Individual Attention:
Class & Cappuccino at Historic Café Poliziano

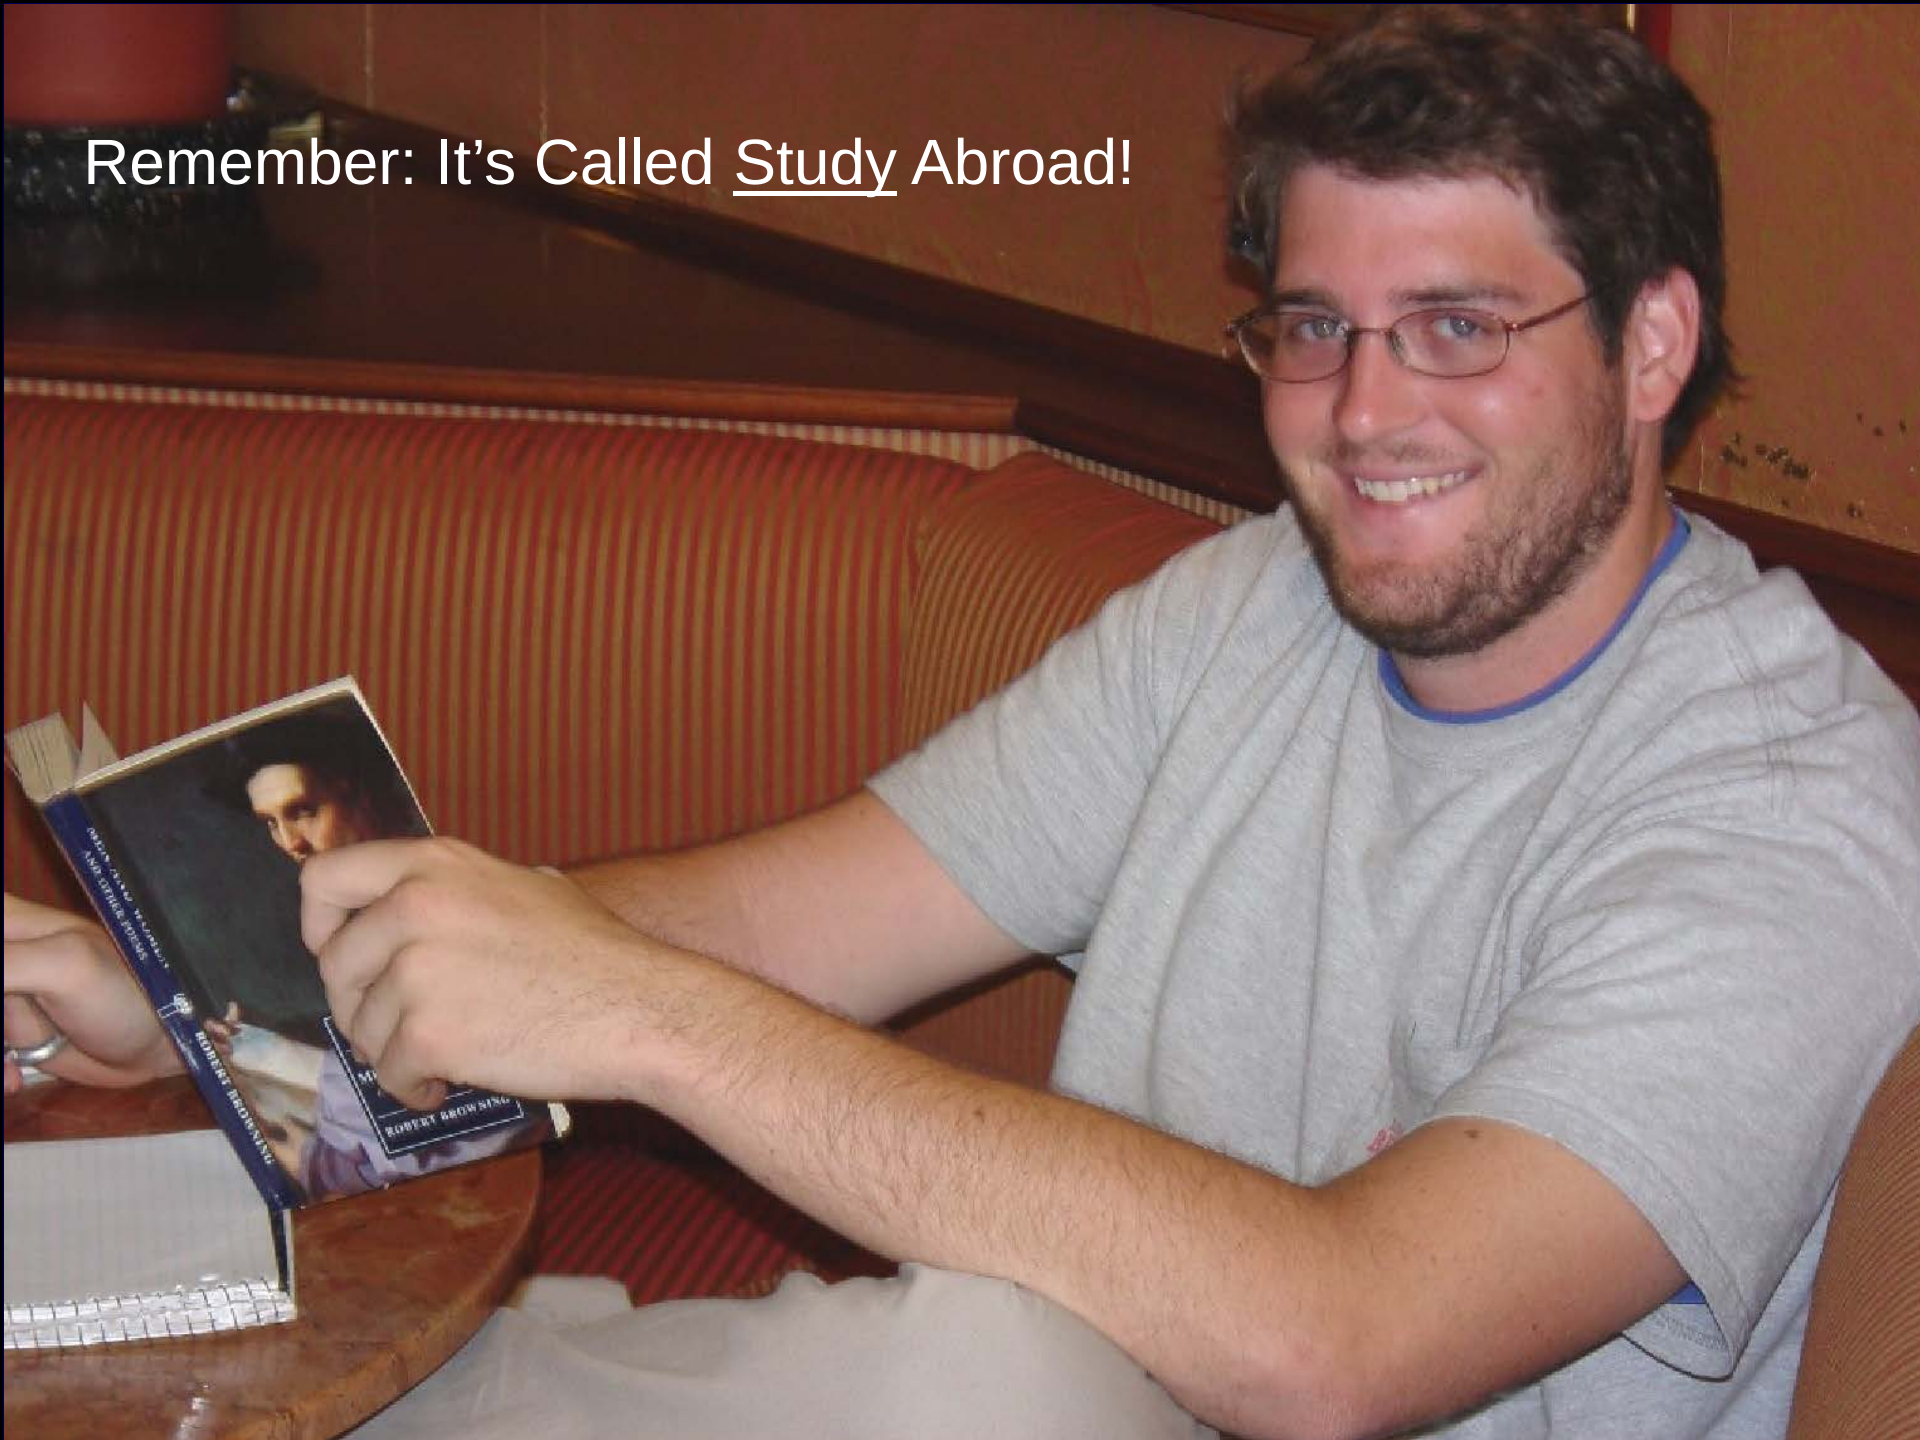

Café Poliziano: Time to Relax

Or Catch Up On Assignments

Remember: It's Called Study Abroad!

Group
Photo
2005

Dinner at Trattoria da Cagnano:::
The Courses Keep Coming!

Typical Apartment: Shared Bedrooms

Making Friends from all over Georgia

Typical Student Apartment

Typical Bathroom

All Apartments Have Full Kitchens

Field Trips: Florence

Florence: Students in Piazza del Duomo

Florence: Ghiberti's "Gates of Paradise"

Florence: Piazza della Signoria

Ponte Vecchio: Goldshop

Petting the Cinghiale (Wild Boar):
Insuring Your Return to Florence

Siena Cathedral

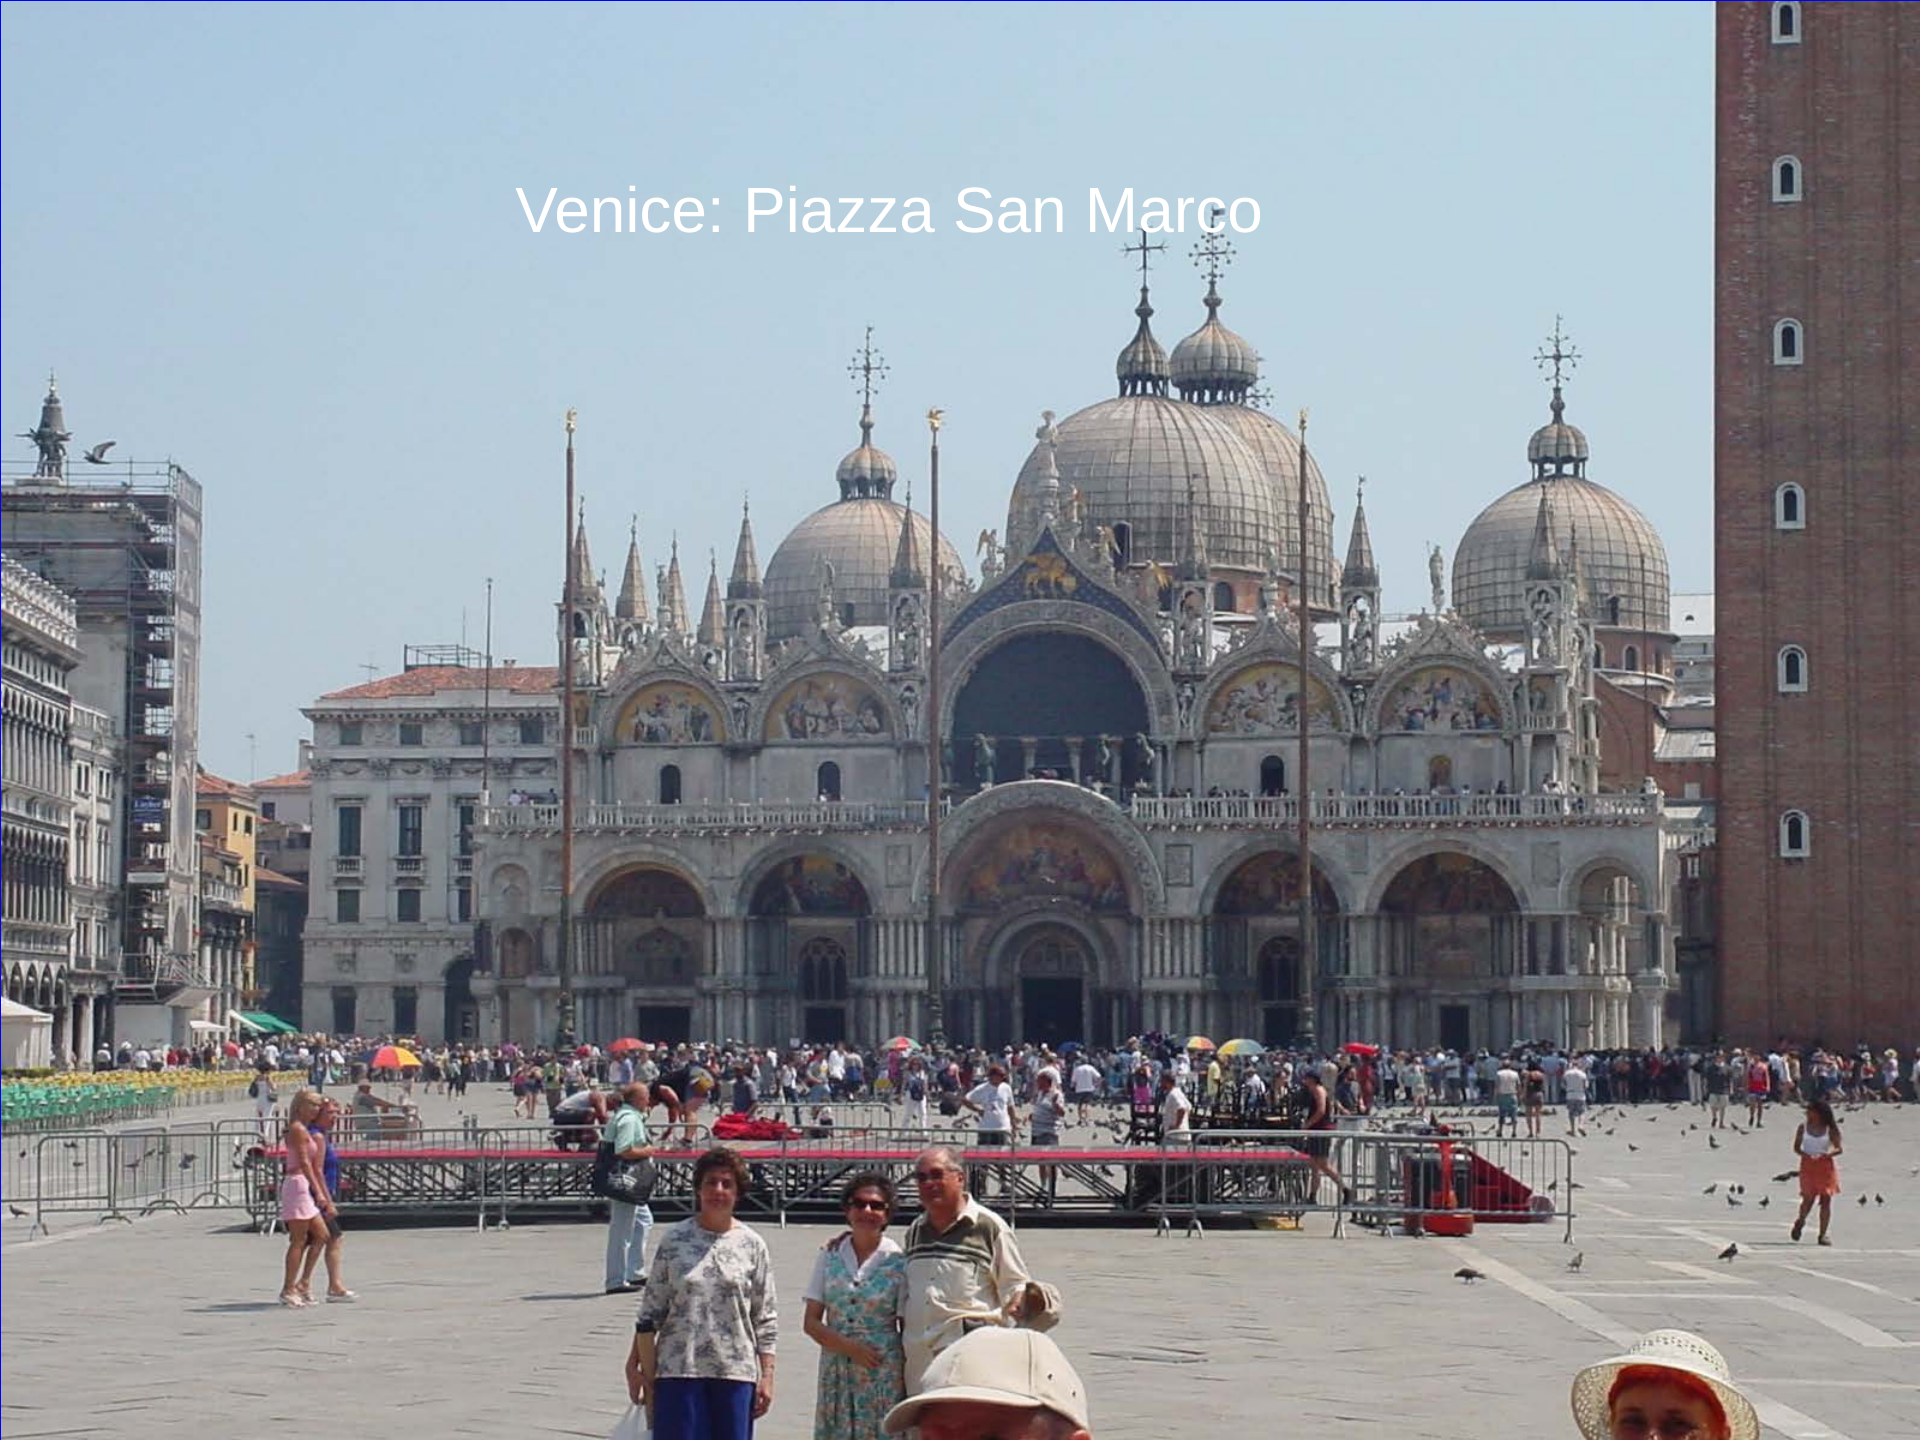

Gelato Break in Siena!!!

Venice: Grand Canal

Venice: Piazza San Marco

Rome: the Colosseum

Inside the Colosseum

Rome: St. Peter's

Dressed for a Field Trip to Rome

View from the top of St. Peter's Dome

Farewell Dinner in Acquaviva

The Euro: Italy's Currency

Ciao! See you in Italy!!

For more information contact:

Kennesaw State University

Education Abroad Office

Tara McDuffie

Phone: 678-797-2672

E-mail: trolle2@kennesaw.edu

Web site: www.kennesaw.edu/studyabroad