COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course stresses expansion of effective listening comprehension through culturally and linguistically appropriate activities.

COURSE GOALS:

As a special skill course, this course is designed to support the course of Comprehensive Chinese for Intermediate Learners. In the end of the term, the student should be able to

1. recognize the emphasis of word and sentences;
2. accurately catch the sound, rhymes and tones of Chinese language;
3. understand simple conversational expressions in daily life occasions, their teacher's in-class instruction in slow speed, and common social communications;
4. understand the basic main ideas of the speakers in communication.

TEXTBOOK:

《汉语会话 301 句》Chinese Conversation: 301 Sentences, Kang Yuhua and Lai Siping, Beijing: Beijing Language University Press, 1999.

POLICIES/REQUIREMENTS

1. All quizzes/tests/ assignments are cumulative. No make-up quizzes will be given. A score of "0" will be assigned for all work not turned in or any quizzes/tests not taken.

2. Attendance is mandatory. If you must miss class, it is YOUR responsibility to find out what you missed. Realize as well that your grade may be impacted by losing in-class assignment points or missing the opportunity to turn in a homework assignment or give a presentation. It is common courtesy to let your professor know if you are going to be absent from class.

3. ETIQUETTE:

In the classroom, mutual regard will also be the basis of our learning. Our various life experiences and academic disciplines mean that we all come to the classroom with different perspectives and divergent strategies for defending those views. Thus classroom etiquette is particularly vital. Listen carefully when your colleagues are speaking. State your opinions in a way that invites discussion, rather than assumes that you have the definitive account of the topic.

Turn your cell phones, PDAs, pagers, WIFI connections, and all other electronics off during class time. Do not work on other projects, check your email on your laptop computers, or text message during class. Also do not depart the classroom during the class to use the telephone, to answer a page, or to check your email. Departure from the classroom during session is disruptive; please do not leave unless you have an emergency.

4. ACADEMIC HONESTY: Every KSU student is responsible for upholding the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct as published in the Undergraduate and Graduate Catalogs. Section II of the Student Code of Conduct addresses the University's policy in academic honesty, including provisions regarding plagiarism and cheating, unauthorized access to University materials, misrepresentation/falsification of University records or academic work, malicious removal, retention, or destruction of library materials, malicious/intentional misuse of computer facilities and/or services, and misuse of student identification cards. Incidents of alleged academic misconduct will be handled through the established procedures of the University Judiciary Program, which include either an "informal" resolution by a faculty member, resulting in a grade adjustment, or a formal hearing procedure, which may subject a student to the Code of Conduct's minimum one-semester suspension requirement.

The Department of Foreign Languages at Kennesaw State University considers it a breach of academic integrity for the student to use automatic translators of any kind to complete an assignment. Furthermore, no compositions or other work should be written or edited for the student by a native speaker of the target language, by a tutor or student assistant in the Foreign Language Resource Center, or by any other individual.
